The Alliance Privacy Statement

Introduction
Since 1985, The Alliance has been dedicated to creating opportunities for refugees, immigrants, and underserved residents to achieve their goals for self-sufficiency and improve their quality of life.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of our volunteers, donors, and other community members. Therefore, The Alliance will not sell, share, or release your name to any list service or outside organization. Any information provided by you will be held in the strictest of confidence. The purpose of this notice is to explain the practices and procedures we implement to protect your personal information, the way we use this information, and the choices you can make regarding our of your personal information. This notice can be accessed by clicking on the “Privacy” link at the footer of our website.

The Information We Collect
You may browse The Alliance website without submitting personal information. However, if you choose to sign up for our newsletter, submit a volunteer interest form, or donate to The Alliance, you may be asked for applicable personal data such as your name, address, email, phone number, or payment information. The purpose of collecting such data is to process inquiries, registrations, or donations made online. If you need to contact us to review personal information collected and/or request corrections, please email info@TheAllianceTX.org.

Credit Card Security
The Alliance is grateful for donations that help us empower underserved families. When you donate to The Alliance online, your privacy is incredibly important to us. Your credit card information is secured by a reputable company, Kindful. The company adheres to strict industry standards for payment processing. Also, your credit card number is used only for singular donation transactions and is not stored, unless you choose to create an individual account through Kindful. You will see the “closed” lock symbol in either the status bar or address bar of your browser when you are on our secure donation pages. You will also notice in your browser’s address bar that the URL starts with "https" on those donation pages. This means that information entered on those pages is encrypted for your security.

Changes to this Policy

We may need to make revisions to this privacy policy on occasion. Consequently, we reserve the right to change this privacy policy at any time. Please check The Alliance website for any updates and other changes.
